INDIE ROCK straight outta New Jersey

What is Project Atlantic?

Project Atlantic is the independent solo project of New Jersey based musician Josh Zimmer. Drawing from the sounds of indie rock and dream pop, Zimmer crafts lush and emotionally driven music, all from the confines of his bedroom studio.

In 2026, he released the single Monochrome Blue, his first official collaboration with another artist, German singer Fe Malefiz.

Dos and Don'ts for Musicians on a First Time Date

- DO ask your date about themselves
- DO NOT spend an hour showing your date images of old guitars you used to own
- DO be polite, courteous, and a good listener
- DO NOT take your date to a record shop, ask them to pick out their favorite albums, then proceed to tell your date why said albums are not good

*Note to non-musicians: Date a musician at your own risk. Project Atlantic is not liable for any musician-related dating mishaps.

Q&A with Josh Zimmer

Q: What are three words to describe the new single, Monochrome Blue?

A: Energetic, sincere, optimistic

Q: What strategy do you use to keep your creativity flowing?

A: A steady diet of burgers, sushi, and cranberry juice

Q: Why did you want to feature someone else on vocals?

A: I felt the song needed an airy higher register voice

Q: What's something you can't live without?

A: Oxygen
